Proceedings: (IN CHAMBERS) Order to Show Cause re Dismissal for Lack of Prosecution

Absent a showing of good cause, an action must be dismissed without prejudice if the summons and complaint are not served on a defendant within 90 days after the complaint is filed. Fed.R.Civ.Proc. 4(m). Generally, defendants must answer the complaint within 21 days after service (60 days if the defendant is the United States). Fed.R.Civ.Proc. 12(a)(1).

In the present case, it appears that one or more of these time periods has not been met. Accordingly, the court, on its own motion, orders Counter-Claimant to show cause in writing by November 28, 2025, why this action should not be dismissed for lack of prosecution as to certain counter defendants.

Alternatively, the Court will consider the following a satisfactory response to the Order to Show Cause:

| | Alternative Response | Response Due Date | As to Defendant/s: |
|----------|---|-------------------|------------------------------|
| X | Proof of TIMELY AND PROPER service of SUMMONS AND OPERATIVE COUNTERCLAIM | 11/28/2025 | Matthew Goins Allen Goins |
| | Response to the operative Complaint | | |
| | If defendant fails to respond on the date above, Plaintiff's application for entry of default by clerk pursuant to Rule 55a of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure | | |
| | Plaintiff's motion for default judgment pursuant to Rule 55b of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure | | |

If a satisfactory response is not timely filed, the matter or the listed defendants will be dismissed for lack of prosecution without further warning. A stipulation to extend dates or a notice of settlement do not constitute a proper response to this order.

Pursuant to Rule 78 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the court finds that this matter is appropriate for submission without oral argument. Failure to comply with this order may result in the imposition of sanctions including dismissal of certain parties and/or the entire action for lack of prosecution without further warning.
